Lesotho Nursing Council

Establishment of the Lesotho Nursing Council

3. (1) There is established the Lesotho Nursing Council, which shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession, a common seal and shall be capable of suing and being sued.

(2) The application of the seal of the Council shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman or some member of the Council authorised by the Council to authenticate the application of the seal thereof, and of the Registrar or some other person authorised by the Council to act in his stead in that behalf.

Functions of the Council

4. The Council shall be the governing body in matters relating to nursing and midwifery and its functions are -

(a) to make recommendations to the Minister on matters relating to and affecting the well-being of the nursing profession;

(b) to recommend to the Minister, the schools of nursing or other places or institutions where student nurses, midwives or other categories of nurses are to be trained;

(c) to provide guidelines on curricula and conduct of examination;

(d) to inspect schools of nursing or other institutions where any category of nurses is trained and warn the minister or the nursing institutions of any discrepancies regarded by the Council as detrimental to the well being of the nursing profession;
(e) to prescribe registration fees or any other fees to be paid by a person registered, enrolled, listed or indexed under this Act;

(f) to draw up rules for nurses;

(g) to maintain documents relating to various categories of nurses, nursing assistants, midwives whether they are undergoing training or fully qualified;

(h) to remove from the register, roll, list or index the name of a person who has ceased to qualify under this Act and

(i) to prescribe the necessary requirements for persons wishing to engage in private practice.

Composition of the Council

5. (1) The Council shall be appointed by the Minister and it shall consist of the following -

(a) the Principal Secretary responsible for health;

(b) the Chief Nursing Officer;

(c) a legal practitioner nominated by the Law Society;

(d) a member of the teaching staff of the National University of Lesotho from the faculty of education;

(e) a representative of the Christian Association of Lesotho who may not be a health professional;

(f) 2 members of the public - a male and a female;

(g) 10 registered nurses or midwives elected by nurses and midwives and representing the public, private, missionary and other health institutions and health care providers as follows -

   (i) 4 nurse educators or tutors representing nursing and midwifery education programmes;

   (ii) 3 registered nurses or midwives representing clinical practice including mental health;

   (iii) 1 registered nurse or midwife with qualifications in community health;

   (iv) 1 registered nurse representing the Lesotho Nurses Association.

   (v) 1 registered nurse representing the Lesotho Nurses Association.

(2) Members of the Council may elect a chairman and a deputy chairman from among themselves both of whom shall be persons registered under this Act.
Tenure of office

6. (1) A member of the Council, other than an ex-officio member, shall hold office for a period of 3 years and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(2) The office of a member of the Council, other than an ex-officio member, shall become vacant -

(a) if he resigns by notice in writing through the council to the Minister;
(b) if he is judged insolvent;
(c) if circumstances arise which, if he were not a member of the body which nominated him, would disqualify him from appointment as such;
(d) if he is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the Council without the leave of the Council; or
(e) if he has at any time been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude.

(3) A member of the Council who misconducts himself or abuses his position may be censured by the Council or if the gravity of the matter is sufficiently serious, the Council may, by a vote of two thirds majority of the members present and voting, with the approval of the Minister, remove the member from the Council, and such removal shall be published by notice in the Gazette.

Vacancy

7. (1) If the office of a member becomes vacant, before the expiration of his term of office, whether by death, resignation or otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with the manner in which such a person was appointed.

(2) The person appointed under subsection (1) shall hold office for the remainder of his term.

(3) If a member of the Council is granted leave of absence by the Council the Council may, if it thinks fit, fill the vacancy during the absence by co-opting to the Council a person who is a member of the same profession as the member whose place he is filling.

Meetings of the Council

8. (1) The Council shall hold its first meeting at such place on such date as the Registrar may decide:

Provided that such a meeting shall be held not more than 30 days after the appointment of the Council, and thereafter, meetings of the Council shall be held at such places and on such dates as the Council shall determine.

(2) The quorum of the Council shall be three quarters of the total number of members of whom not less than 4 shall be registered nurses or midwives.
(3) The Chairman may cause the holding of an extra-ordinary meeting where need for such a meeting arises.

(4) There shall preside at a meeting of the Council the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman or in the absence of both the Chairman and Deputy-Chairman, a member who shall be elected from amongst those present to preside over the meeting.

(5) Decisions of the Council shall be made according to the majority of votes of the members present and voting at a meeting of the Council at which a quorum is present, and, in the event of an equality of votes, the member presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

(6) The Council shall cause minutes of all its meetings to be kept and record all proceedings and resolutions and the names of the Council.

(7) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the Council may regulate its own procedure and may act validly notwithstanding a vacancy in its membership.

Disclosure of interest

9. A member of the Council who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a transaction, project or contract made or proposed to be made by the Council shall disclose the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Council, and that member shall not take part in any deliberation or decision of the Council with respect to that transaction, project or contract.

Committees of the Council

10. Subject to this Act, Council may appoint from among its members such committees as it may deem expedient and may delegate to a committee such of its powers as it may from time to time determine and make rules for regulating the functions and proceedings of such committee.

Lesotho Nurses Credentials Committee

11. (1) There is established an examining body to be known as Lesotho Nurses Credentials Committee which may perform the examination functions of the Council subject to any directions by the Council.

(2) Members of the Credentials Committee shall -

(a) be appointed by the Council;

(b) be academicians or educators from the Nursing or Midwifery Programmes and the National University of Lesotho.

Registrar and staff of the Council

12. (1) There shall be a Registrar of the Council who shall be appointed by the Council.

(2) The Registrar shall, in addition to any other function imposed on him under this Act, be the Secretary of the Council and shall, in consultation with or on instructions of the chairman of any committee, convene and keep minutes of the proceedings at all meetings of the Council and of any such committee.
(3) The Council may, whenever the Registrar is absent or is for any other cause prevented from or incapable of discharging the functions of his office, appoint an acting Registrar to discharge the functions of that office.

(4) The Council may appoint other employees as it may deem fit.

(5) The Registrar and other employees of the Council shall hold office on such terms and conditions as the Council may determine.

Funds of the Council

13. (1) The funds of the Council shall consist of -

(a) fees and other moneys payable to the Council under this Act;

(b) such monies as may be payable to the Council out of monies appropriated by Parliament; and

(c) such monies and assets as may vest in and accrue to the Council whether in the course of its functions or otherwise.

(2) There shall be paid from the funds of the Council -

(a) remuneration and allowances of the Registrar and of the employees of the Council;

(b) such reasonable travelling, transport and subsistence expenses of members and staff of the Council when engaged on the business of the Council; and

(c) any other expenses incurred by the Council in the discharge of its functions.

Accounts and audit

14. (1) The financial year of the Council shall be the period of 12 months ending on the 31st March in each year:

Provided that the first financial year of the Council shall be the period commencing on the date when the Council holds its first meeting and ending on the 31st March next following.

(2) The Council shall -

(a) in respect of each financial year, prepare a statement of accounts and a balance sheet showing, in all necessary details, the income and expenditure and assets and liabilities of the Council;

(b) keep proper books of accounts and other records relating thereto.

(3) The accounts of the Council for each financial year of the Council shall be audited by the Auditor-General and, for that purpose, the Auditor-General and any other person authorised by him shall have access to all books and other records relating to such books.

(4) The Auditor-General shall, not later than 12 months after the end of each financial year of the Council, submit a report on the accounts of the Council to the Minister and the Minister shall, not later than 7 days after the first sitting of the National Assembly, next after the receipt by him of such report, lay the report before Parliament.

(5) In the exercise of his functions under this section, the Auditor-General shall not be subject to the direction or control of any person or authority.

PART III
Register, Roll, List and Index

Register of nurses
15. The Council shall cause to be prepared and maintained a register of nurses and midwives which shall consist of -

   (a) a general part containing the names of all nurses who satisfy the conditions of admission thereto;
   (b) a part containing the names of registered nurses;
   (c) a part containing the names of registered midwives;
   (d) a part containing the names of registered nurses trained in the nursing and care of persons suffering from mental illness;
   (e) a part containing the names of registered nurses trained in the nursing of sick children;
   (f) a part containing the names of persons qualified as tutors, teachers or lecturers, as the case may be;
   (g) a part containing the names of nurses and midwives who may be temporarily resident in Lesotho; and
   (h) such other part as may be prescribed by the Council.

Roll of nurses and list of nursing assistants
16. The Council shall cause to be prepared and maintained a roll of nurses and list of nursing assistants respectively which shall consist of -

   (a) a general part containing the names of all nurses who satisfy the conditions of admission thereto;
   (b) a part containing the names of enrolled nurses and a part containing the names of enrolled midwives;
   (c) a separate list containing names of nursing assistants; and
   (d) such other parts as may be prescribed by the Council.

Index of students nurses
17. The Council shall cause to be prepared and maintained a student nurses index which shall consist of-

(a) a record containing the names of all students nurses who satisfy the conditions of admission thereto; and

(b) such other records as may be prescribed.

Registration

18. (1) Where a person satisfies the conditions of admission to a part of the register or roll other than the general part thereof, his name may be included in that other part, not withstanding that it is also included in the general part.

(2) A registered person shall not be entitled to be admitted to, nor shall his name be entered in the roll, and where any enrolled person or nursing assistant is admitted to the register under this Act, his name shall be deleted from the roll and list and he shall cease to be an enrolled person or nursing assistant

Post-registration, advanced and nursing specialist qualification

19. A person who desires registration in respect of a qualification, other than the qualification in respect of which he has in the first instance been registered shall, upon payment of the prescribed fee and subject to prescribed conditions, upon production of such qualification, be entitled to have the qualification entered after his name in the register referred to in section 25 as an additional qualification.

General provision as admission to register, roll or list

20. (1) The Council may make Rules for regulating the conditions of admission to the register, roll or list respectively and for the conduct of any examination which may be prescribed as a condition of admission thereto and any matters auxiliary to or connected with such examinations and any such Rules shall contain provisions -

(a) requiring as a condition for the admission of any person to the register, roll or list that, that person shall have undergone the prescribed education and training; and

(b) requiring that the prescribed education and training shall be carried out in an institution approved by the Council.

(2) There shall be paid to the Council in respect of every application to be examined or to be registered or to be enrolled or indexed or listed such fees as the Council may, from time to time, determine.

Qualifications obtained outside Lesotho

21. A nurse who wishes to register a qualification in nursing or midwifery obtained outside Lesotho may, upon request for registration with the Council, be examined by the Council in respect of that qualification.

Appeal against refusal to registration, enrolment or listing
22. If a person seeking registration enrolment or listing is refused such registration, enrolment or listing, the Registrar shall, if required to do so, state in writing the reason for the refusal and the person refused may appeal to the High Court.

Removal from and restoration to register, roll or list

23. (1) The Council may make Rules prescribing -

(a) the circumstances and the manner in which persons may be removed by the Council from the register, roll or list respectively; and

(b) the circumstances and the manner in which persons who have been removed from the register, roll or list be restored thereto, and the fee payable in respect of any such restoration.

(2) A person removed by the Council from the register in accordance with the Rules made under this section shall cease to be a registered person, and any person removed by the Council from the roll or list in accordance with Rules made under this section shall cease to be an enrolled person or nursing assistant:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prejudice the restoration of any person to the register, or roll in accordance with Rules made under this section.

(3) Rules made under this section shall be published in the Gazette.

Custody of register, roll and list

24. (1) The register, roll and list shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar at the office of the Council and shall be open to inspection by any person authorised to do so by the Registrar without charge during usual business hours.

(2) The Registrar shall -

(a) prepare and maintain the register roll and list -

(i) correctly; and

(ii) in accordance with this Act;

(b) delete from the register, roll and list the names of persons who have died;

(c) make any necessary alterations in the register, roll or list.

(3) For the purpose of sub-section (2) it shall be the duty of every registered enrolled or listed person who changes his address to notify the fact to the Registrar within one month after the change.

Publication of copies of register, roll and list

25. (1) The Registrar shall, from time to time under the authority of the Council, cause copies of the register, the roll and the list and of supplementary lists relating thereto in showing all alterations, additions and deletions made since the last publication of the complete register, roll and list as the case may be, to be printed and published.

(2) Copies of the register, roll or list shall be printed and published in such form as the Council may decide.

Published copies or register, roll and list

26. (1) Subject to this section a copy of the register, the roll and the list, or of any supplementary record or list relating thereto, purporting to have been printed or published under the authority of the Council, shall be prima facie evidence admissible in all legal proceedings as proof of the facts stated therein, and the absence of the name of any person from such copy shall be prima facie evidence that such person is not registered, enrolled or listed, as the case may be.

(2) Where a person is registered, enrolled or listed as the case may be, after the date of the last published issue of a copy of the register, of the roll or of the list, a copy of the entries in the register, the roll or the list or other supplementary lists or records relating to that person, certified under the hand of the registrar registered, enrolled or listed or as the case may be.

(3) Where the name of a person has been deleted from the register, or from the roll, or from the list after the date of the last published issue of a copy therof, a certificate under the hand of the Registrar stating that the name has been deleted there from shall be evidence that such person is not registered or, as the case may be, is not enrolled, listed or otherwise.

PART IV

(ii) the entry and disqualification of candidates for examinations;

(iii) the fees payable to the Council by candidates for examination; and

(iv) the publication of examination results.

(2) In this section “health training institutions” refers to the health training institutions set out in the Schedule.

(3) The Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, amend the Schedule.

PART V - PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE

Application for and renewal of practising licence

28. A registered nurse, enrolled nurse, midwife or nursing assistant shall renew her practising licence annually, or as shall be determined by the Council, upon payment of a prescribed fee.

Practising without a licence

29. (1) A nurse, midwife, enrolled nurse or nursing assistant who practises without a licence commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding M5000.00 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 5 years or both.

Private Practice

30. (1) No person shall engage in private practice unless that person has fulfilled the necessary requirements as may, from time to time, be prescribed by the Council and has been duly registered with the Council.

(2) Any person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine no exceeding M5000-00 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 5 years or both.

Monitoring nursing, midwifery and nurse specialist practice

31. (1) The Council shall monitor and control nursing and midwifery practice in public, private and any other health facility or setting.

(2) Nurses, midwives, nurse specialists, enrolled nurses and nursing assistants shall practice their profession in the facilities or settings referred to in subsection (1).

Rules for professional practice

32. The Council may make Rules to regulate the practice of nursing and midwifery under this Part.

PART VI
Professional Conduct

Professional Conduct Committee

33. (1) There is established the Professional Conduct Committee of the Council which shall consist of -

(a) the Chairman who shall be a member "ex officio"; and

(b) 6 members who shall be appointed by the Minister, one of whom shall be a legal practitioner nominated by the council and 5 of whom shall be persons registered under this Act.

(2) An appointed member of the Professional Conduct Committee hold office for the term of office of the Council and shall, on ceasing to be a member, be eligible for re-appointment.

(3) An appointed member of the Professional Conduct Committee may at any time, upon giving notice in writing to the Minister, resign his office.

(4) The Chairman shall preside at the meetings of the Professional Conduct Committee and in his absence, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside at that meeting.

(5) A registered person may be appointed by the Council to fill a vacancy in the Professional Conduct Committee occurring by reason of resignation, death or otherwise, but he shall hold office only so long as the member in whose stead he is appointed would have held office.

(6) During the absence from Lesotho of any appointed member of the Professional Conduct Committee, the council may appoint any registered person to be a temporary member in place of the absent member for the period of his absence or until the expiration of his term of office, whichever first occurs, and a temporary member so appointed shall be deemed for all purposes to be a member of the Professional Conduct Committee during the period.

Proceedings of the Professional Conduct Committee

34. (1) At any meeting of the Professional Conduct Committee 3 members shall form a quorum.

(2) Any question proposed for decision by the Professional Conduct
Committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present at any meeting of the committee at which a quorum is present, and every member so present shall record a vote.

(3) Each member present at any meeting of the Professional Conduct Committee shall have one vote on a question proposed for decision by the Committee and in the event of any equality of votes, the Chairman, or the member presiding in the absence of the Chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberate vote.

(4) The Professional Conduct Committee shall meet as and when necessary.

Powers of the Professional Conduct Committee and inquiries

35. (1) The Professional Conduct Committee may exercise such functions as are conferred upon it by or under this part or by the Council and may conduct an inquiry into any matter referred to it for inquiry for the purpose of this Part.

(2) For the purpose of any inquiry by it, the Professional Conduct Committee may hear and receive evidence and may under the hand of the Chairman or of the Registrar subpoena witnesses and require the production of any book, record, document or thing, and may, through the Chairman, administer an oath to a witness.

(3) A person summoned to attend before the Professional Conduct Committee who, without sufficient cause -

(a) refuses or fails to attend at the time and place specified in the summons;

(b) having attended, refuses to be sworn; and

(c) having been sworn -

(i) refuses to answer or to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his knowledge and belief, any question lawfully put to him; or

(ii) refuse to produce any book, record, document or thing which he has been required by summons to produce; or

(iii) gives false evidence, knowing it to be false or not believing it to be true, commits an offence and is liable on conviction for every such refusal or failure, to a fine not exceeding M5000.00 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 5 years:

Provided that no person shall be compelled to answer any question or produce any book, record, document or thing which he could not be compelled to answer or produce if he were an accused person or witness, as the case may be, in criminal proceedings in the High Court.

Power to impose penalties

36. (1) If a registered, enrolled or listed person is, after due inquiry, judged by the Professional Conduct Committee to have been guilty of misconduct, the Professional Conduct Committee may, if it thinks to fit, impose one or more of the following penalties -

(a) direct the deletion of his name from the register, the roll or the list;
(b) censure him;
(c) caution him and postpone for a period not exceeding one year any further action against him on one or more conditions as to his conduct during that period;
(d) order him to pay to the Council any cost incidental to the proceedings incurred by the Council.

(2) If a registered or enrolled person is, after due inquiry, judged by the professional Conduct Committee to have become mentally or physically disabled to the extent that the continued practice by such person of his profession is contrary to the public welfare, the Professional Conduct Committee shall direct the deletion of his name from the register or roll, as the case may be.

(3) In an inquiry under this part any finding of fact which is shown to have been made in any criminal proceedings in a court of Lesotho shall be conclusive evidence of the fact found.

(4) If after due inquiry, the Professional Conduct Committee is satisfied that during the period of any postponement under subsection (1)(c) a person has not complied with the conditions imposed thereunder, the Professional Conduct Committee may, if it thinks fit, impose any one or more of the penalties mentioned in subsection (1).

Restoration of name to register, roll or list

37. (1) Where the name of a person has been deleted from the register, roll or list in pursuance of a direction given under section 36, the Professional Conduct Committee may, if it thinks fit, at any time direct restoration of his name thereto:

Provided that an application for the restoration of a name shall not be made to the Professional Conduct Committee -

(a) before the expiration of 6 months from date of deletion;
(b) within a period of 6 months from the consideration by the Professional Conduct Committee of a previous application in that behalf.
(2) There shall be payable to the Council by a person on the restoration of his name to the register, roll or list in pursuance of a direction given under this section the like fees as would be payable by the person on first becoming registered, enrolled or listed as the case may be, together with any penalty as may be determined by the Council.

Deletion from the register, roll or list on grounds of fraud or error

38. (1) If the Professional Conduct Committee is satisfied, upon due inquiry, that an entry made in the register, roll or list has been fraudulently or incorrectly made, the Professional Conduct Committee may direct that the entry be deleted therefrom.

(2) A person may be registered, enrolled or listed under this Act notwithstanding that his name has been deleted in pursuance of a direction under subsection (1) but if such deletion was made on ground of fraud he shall not be registered, enrolled or listed as the case may be, except on an application in that behalf to the Professional Conduct Committee and on any such application, the Professional Conduct Committee may, if it thinks fit, direct that such person shall not be registered, enrolled or listed after the expiration of such period as may be specified in the direction.

Appeals

39. (1) Where the Professional Conduct Committee -
   (a) makes findings and imposes a penalty under section 36 on a registered, enrolled or listed person;
   (b) rejects an application for restoration of a name to the register, roll or list under section 37;
   (c) directs deletion of an entry from the register, roll or list under section 38, the Registrar shall give notice in writing thereof to the person to whom the proceedings relate and that person may, within 90 days of the date on which notice was given, appeal to the High Court.

(2) On any appeal under this section the Council shall be the respondent.

(3) No direction under section 36 or 38 for the deletion of a name of a registered, enrolled or listed person shall take effect until the expiration of the time for appealing or, if the appeal is brought, until such time as the appeal is disposed of, withdrawn or struck out for want of prosecution, as the case may be.

(4) The Chief Justice may make rules regulating appeals to the High Court under this section.

Rules relating to Professional Conduct Committee proceedings

40. (1) The Council may make Rules as to the -
   (a) acts or omissions on the part of registered, enrolled or listed persons which shall constitute professional misconduct;
(b) times and places of the meetings of the Professional Conduct Committee and mode of summoning the members;

(c) form and manner of service of summons requiring the attendance of a witness before the Professional Conduct Committee, and the production of any book, records documents or thing;
